Dayliah
'Back in Time' Limer

Alleyne
Learner Limer

Sabrina
Baby Limer

Kelliann
New Limer on the Block

Not 'in town' just on the Limers & Diners team. I was dancing a Latin rhythm before you youngsters (Dayliah excepted) even knew how to tap your toes, 'knocking dominoes' before you were knocking your front teeth on a beer bottle! Playing 'All Fours' before you could count that far. Mmmm when I was young....

All 'Limers' know that age is just a number!

Ouch what do you mean, me excepted, Uncle Cleave? I still know where it's at & when. Hey Sabrina did you give up the sunglasses along with your pass for SGU now that you've joined us 'Big People' permanently in the world of work? Not enough time to lime huh?

Say what you will, I'm looking seriously 'cooooooool', hands off my cap!

Yep – I gotta get with the programme – can't you see what too much time in the Adobe hut and 'no veggie' dining has done to my 'toned' stomach, I forgot all about the six pack and got myself a whole case! But I did get to wear

THE glasses! Now I look ready to 'lime' at least.

Very funny Dayliah, I see both you and Alleyne were desperate to wear my sunglasses – it's understandable that you want to be more like me! I like the cap though, did you want to hand that over? You don't lime enough to wear it anyway!!

Hang on what happened to me being 'limer extraordinaire?' Kelliann is the Baby Limer!.

Hello, I'm here too! You guys are 'island locked' – what about the liming in Carriacou & PM that you're missing out on. Latin dancing is my real 'lime'. Alleyne the 'high kick' and swinging those hips might help you get that case down to a six pack for the next issue!

Sorry Sabrina – it's all about the double digits and you are the BABY on this block.

Girlz 'Lime'

"No woman, no cry" – Marley obviously knew man's universal truth. A woman crying is just plain blackmail! Not true! It's just short to medium term strategic planning!

Of course, all of us know men and women come from different planets and sometimes wish we had both stayed right there! But girlz as we are here, and the boyz can't do without us, we are very happy to take this particular piece of advice from them:

"Ask us for what you want. Let's be completely clear on this one: Subtle hints do not work! Strong hints do not work! Obvious hints do not work! Just say it!"

There you go girlz, carte blanche to go ahead and have the trip of a lifetime!

Now that's a serious reason to listen to Marley's advice!

Look Who's Cooking

"Part of the secret of success in life is to eat what you like and let the food fight it out inside."
Mark Twain 1835 - 1910

It's also part of the success of your holiday here in the Spice Isles. This is not the time to worry about your diet - it can definitely wait until your visit is over. You can't afford to miss out on all the fresh produce and culinary delights. These are served at a wide variety of venues, many of which use our beautiful outdoor surroundings to enhance their offerings.

Eating experiences here are often very intimate and to make them unforgettable takes not only our talented Chefs, but also their dedicated teams. After all, that's why it's called a dining experience.

So come with us. Turn the page, hop aboard and get ready to hear all about some very fine dining and meet the team who make it special every time!

Look Who's Cooking

“Our goal is to provide exceptional service and a very special experience, not because we have to, but because we love to.”

In November 2008, the Västra Banken welcomed Executive Chef Mark Banthorpe, on board to captain her, along with his five-member crew.

Dining on board is a ‘rocking’ experience, but only gently! We’ve only ever had one guest who got seasick!

After eleven months of being a team, we can safely say ‘we know the ropes.’ And we are thrilled that our team dynamics and professionalism are a major part of an exceptional dining experience on board. The Chef is great to work with - once we do as we’re told!! He’s always willing to teach and give us advice.

“He’s worked with me to expand my range and to prepare drinks that really compliment the great food we serve.”

Yes, he runs a tight ship. Literally. We have learned that it’s all about paying attention to detail, inside the kitchen and out, and that the whole team has to play their part.

"He's a good guy - hard at times, but fair. Yes, even when I break dishes during wash up."

Serving our guests is always interesting. Chef never ceases to amaze us. One night we were absolutely booked to capacity. Chef's young apprentice accidentally knocked over twelve orders of duck confit. We expected to hear 'Man over board!' Although he was really mad, Chef kept his composure and re-created the orders in perfect timing.

"Boy was I scared that night! It's not an explosion in the kitchen that can make you shake in your shoes - it's the Chef!"

The Chef prepares awesome dishes onboard, which we find amazing as we know he's used to working in much bigger kitchens. Not like the galley kitchen we have on board.

He likes to keep up to date with current trends, he's got loads of books and of course he checks out other restaurants (he likes his food! Occupational hazard!) Then there are the local dishes. During the 8 years he's been in Grenada he's learned to adapt these and perfect them in his own style, using a wide variety of herbs and spices. Tasting them - just to make sure - is a definite perk of this job!

"It has been a lovely and refreshing move being here. Now I have more time to spend perfecting and finessing the dishes we serve to our guests."

Yes we do have something to do with that lovely, refreshing feeling he has. Yes OK and sometimes the steam which blows out of his ears!

Of course the dining experience on the Västtra Banken is different from anywhere else. It has the perfect ambiance, excellent service, great food and of course - Us!

So don't tread water deciding where to eat; step aboard and navigate some serious fine dining on the decks of the Västtra Banken

Grenada's first and only lightship restaurant.

Boyz 'Lime'

OK ladies, enough jokes at our expense – it's time for our thing, our way! Don't worry, we boyz are secure enough to do all those girleeee things.

Yes we worry about getting our hair wet, breaking our nails, bathing shorts lines interrupting our sun tans – being pale above the knees is very frustrating! The logistics of getting another drink without actually having to break a sweat – no no no we're not asking for help, we've got it under control.

That's why we have heard it said that, 'God made man before woman because he didn't want any advice on how to do it!' Ouch - we didn't say it – we just heard it!

No don't be like that, you know we love you girlz, we're not saying we don't want advice sometimes...

Who said female logic was an oxymoron? Ssshhhh boyz, don't make 'trouble before the limin' even gets started!

CLARKE'S
COURT

Grenada's No.1 Rum

NICK'S

“When I was a little boy sometimes my father used to send me on the truck down to the rum factory to get two bottles of cane juice for him for the weekend, little did I know then that in my later years I would become an integral part of the factory to which my father supplied cane”

Mr Leroy Neckles – May, 2008

Owner & Chairman of the Board of Directors of Grenada Distillers

Nicholas Neckles, born in 1903 died 1972, was the son of plantation owner Phineas Neckles, whose Beausejour Estate was the largest supplier of cane to the Grenada Sugar Factory, now known as Grenada Distillers, the producers of Clarke's Court Rum.

Affectionately known to all as 'Nick', he was renowned for his outgoing personality and particularly for his name-sake restaurant situated in busy St. George's town, which was always a great meeting place for all sorts of people. With a penchant for getting things moving, he was a foundation member of Grenada Yacht Club, founder of the Diamond Social Club, entrepreneur and a great friend to countrymen and visitors alike, all rolled into one!

'Beauty' of Petite Martinique

Sanchez, Petite Martinique

Sister Isles 'Lime'

Carriacou & Petite Martinique

This is a very special lime. If in your heart you truly believe that it's possible that time is not one directional, then what are you waiting for!

Our beautiful islands are a 'state of mind'. To really enjoy them you have to breathe differently, slower, calmer, - you definitely must not count the tick-tock of any clock!

You have to look and see things differently – the dazzling light of the sun's rays and the moon beams playing across the ocean, like strobe lights. The underwater life 'skipping the light fandango' in crystal clear blue waters.

Generations of boat builders, skilled fishermen, Big Drum gatherings, maroon and folklore-a-plenty.

If a day is all you can manage, it will be enough for you to realize that you need to come back for longer.

This is a 'must do' stay a night or two, or more...

Bogles Round House Restaurant & Cottages in Carriacou

“The improbable Bogles Round House, in the miniscule village of Bogles, on the leeward side of the island, takes first-timers by surprise. The quirky round stone building with wagon wheel windows belies the handful of elegantly set, much-in-demand tables, where 26 year old Roxanne Russell offers a short but sophisticated menu that changes every few days” – Gourmet Magazine Feb. 2009

Pure 'Lime'

The pure waters of our falls, the pure primary colours of nature, the pure unmanufactured smell of spices, the pure science of our original rum making techniques. Purity on water, underwater, and everything in between.

This is where it gets seriously technical – breaking up those cocktail moments with some ACTION!

Yes c'mon! If you want to get to know us and understand what the Isle of Spice is really all about, get out of the pool and into some seriously 'pure limin'. No regrets. We promise.

Don't worry, we're not talking full blown aerobics workout here, it can be as gentle or as active as you wish. But whichever path you choose, it will be stunning!

We have more than enough 'pure limin' to suit everyone.

River Antoine Rum Distillery

Where the Past Meets the Present

Rivers', as we and our rum are affectionately known, is an experience! So is the opportunity to step back in time and explore our distillery, whose walls whisper secrets of bygone centuries. See the past meet the present where time proven methods of yesteryear continue to be used in producing...

...our signature rums of today, a 'must have' for all island explorers!

Built in 1785, you will still find us, one of the Caribbean's oldest functioning rum factories, powered by the Caribbean's only functioning waterwheel. We lie concealed between 500 acres of sugar cane, natural vegetation and surrounded by hills of sun bleached crushed cane. These juices are the staple for the purest of rums.

River Antoine Estate, St. Patrick's; Tel: (473) 442-7109 (Distillery);

Rivers Restaurant and Bar

Yes, once you have travelled to see us you must stay awhile and sample our specialities. Please be our guests and step into the comfort of the present as you watch the sway of the cane in the breeze from your table in our open air restaurant.

Come and enjoy 'Rivers', where we have mastered the art of making time stand still and move forward, simultaneously.

'See the quintessential Caribbean in style'

Everybody needs at least one unforgettable experience. Here it is...

From the minute you see the aerial view of Grenada afforded by the light aircraft you know that this is going to be a special day.

Twenty-five minutes of flying to Union Island, and then on to the nearby jetty to be transported to your sailing vessel – Scaramouche.

There she waits, pitch pine and white cedar constructed on the shores of our sister isle, Carriacou. This aged schooner with its sails to the wind, offers plenty of space, comfort, shade & sun. Above and below her decks admire the craftsmanship which forged her.

EXHALE... Close your eyes,
RELAX those shoulders, you are about to experience the completely SUB'LIME'.

The picture perfect scenery of the Grenadines, Mayreau, Tobago Keys and Palm Island, all with water which looks as though it were coloured by a giant paintbrush. Clear enough to view the sea bed, deep enough for your most perfect dive.

Today is your opportunity to get up close and personal with turtles and iguanas! The choice is yours.

If all this is not enough then here's one for the telling – you are walking the same decks as Jack Sparrow aka

Johnny Depp of Pirates of the Caribbean fame!

Ask the crew they willingly tell all!

Shaken & Stirred

The clink of ice cubes on glass is a welcome sound any time of the day, especially here on our sun-drenched islands.

The freshest of fruit juices & smoothies or the purest of rums; we have them all. And plenty of ice! Want to mix your own? Go ahead, but don't forget our rum comes with a 'Mix with Caution' warning!

You've already chosen the most important ingredient by being here in our tri-island state. So what other ingredients can we add?

You're in right the location. You will definitely be spoiled for choice. We have it all from the local rum shops, classy restaurant bars, pool side, beach side, natural air conditioning or the electric kind.

The choice is yours, just don't forget, it's all about the 'lime'!

Shaken & Stirred

Take a guy who confesses his great relationship with bars is based upon being on the opposite side to the bartender.

The most famous beach in Grenada! Rain or shine.

A self confessed miserable *@! CENSORED and once upon a time air traffic controller

Blend, shake or stir and the result is: Garfield's!

The regular haunt after work of visitors, the crowd, students, guardians of children bathing on Grand Anse Beach, early evening beach exercisers and just about anyone who spies out the action and just has to check it out. It has to be Garfield's!

Any which way you serve it, the recipe is a success.

Let's take the main ingredient: 'Location - location - location!' Garfield says.

Set on the famous Grand Anse Beach – 2 miles of white sand lapped by the gentle waters of the Caribbean Sea, Garfield does have a point. You have to see for yourself, this is a picture postcard setting.

The fact that the bar is also close to fast food outlets and a couple of well stocked supermarkets doesn't hurt either. Especially as you can arrive with your own choice of 'eats', grab a table, a bar stool, or just some free space on the sand and still be welcome at Garfield's for drinks.

Grenada Grand Beach Hotel also lies adjacent to the bar, should you wish to choose from their menu offerings.

Garfield has even been known to do the 'food run' himself for his guests. But we suggest you get to know him pretty well before presuming upon his good nature. Like the stunning full moon that can be viewed from his bar; this good nature also comes in phases!

He even says that he's too miserable to own and run a bar, but judging from the constant stream of customers, we reckon you will beg to differ.

Smiles are for special occasions, according to this Proprietor. His persona, he states, is a challenge to all of his regular customers. Not so, he just can't help being 'cool'. Happy exuberance from him would shock the regulars! He is the quintessential 'Limer'.

The 'special occasions smile' philosophy, however, does not apply to his staff. Happy that this is so, he is comfortable to walk away from the beach for a few hours each day and let them carry the mantle of making Garfield's THE place to 'lime'.

This way he can make sure that his drinking and cocktail mixing arm gets its much needed rest!

Even a successful bar owner, living in paradise, needs 'kickback' time. So of course you do too.

Garfield says he hopes the bar will remain successful and be right where it is forever.

No way do we think it will take you that long to see what this chillin' out spot and its 'cool' owner, are all about.

Cheers Garfield!

Art 'Lime'

"The big artist... keeps an eye on nature and steals her tools."

Thomas Eakins, artist and art educator 1844 – 1916

We believe our whole island is a work of art, created with the intention of stimulating thoughts and emotions. Of course we are prejudiced!

However, it does offer a fascinating variety of natural wonders and has proven inspirational on a multitude of levels. This is definitely true in the case of the eclectic mixture of artists and designers to whom Grenada is home.

Viewing their work is a very special way to connect with our islands as well as the opportunity to take a piece of them back home with you.

They say 'beauty is in the eye of the beholder', so...
...BEHOLD!

45 Years of Art Nurturing & Production

On our island home art is everywhere. We have no museum dedicated to visual art, as yet, but if you search you will find numerous art media on our islands. Once your eyes are open you cannot help but find them.

Grenadian based art & design has been exhibited regionally in Barbados, Trinidad, Dominican Republic and internationally in the United States and Europe. Art scholars Susan Mains and Oliver Benoit have presented papers in Austria, Australia, Scotland and in Venice during the Biennale.

The aim of art is to represent not the outward appearance of things, but their inward significance.

Aristotle

Art is not only seen, but felt. Abstract art challenges us to look beyond what is before our eyes, to look inside of ourselves and the worlds we live in, for as long as we wish or dare.
